About This Game

Earth is doomed and our only hope is getting a survivable habitat up in space using whatever resources are scattered in orbit. You're left with debris, junk, and other oddities to use for humanity's survival. Build, upgrade, and control the Habitats that you create as you see fit. The main Campaign will take you through narrative-driven missions while Sandbox mode will give you a blank slate and pure creative control to build and explore at your leisure.

Leading your team of engineers, you will have to build and fly your space stations in a zero gravity setting. Learn to scavenge and thrive with whatever you find floating around in space, or go on the hunt to take what you need from other factions trying to survive. In the event of a threat, get creative and turn your space stations into deadly weapons using pieces of debris you pick up such as rockets, lasers and particle accelerators, to fight with. Crisis is guaranteed; your only chance of survival is to get creative and to be decisive in the face of disaster.

Features

- You are in control: build a fleet of Habitats or combine them all into one massive Habitat.
- Explore procedurally generated space around the Earth, the Moon, and Mars
- Experiment with various space debris such as leftover weaponry and unusual space junk, and hunt for rare pieces of debris to help build and expand your Habitat including a militarized T-Rex Head complete with flame thrower!
- Physics based gameplay using weight, thrust, and zero gravity.

- Embark on Campaign missions and lead your engineers and citizens to safety.
  - Get creative in Sandbox Mode. Build and experiment at your leisure.
  - Hundreds of building blocks for you to create and customize whatever you can think of.
  - Help humanity thrive in space, with civilian rescue, engineer combat, and even space zombies!
  - Fight with the elements - manage fires, ice storms, electrical and EMP bursts
  - Soundtrack by Alexander Brandon (Deus Ex)

I take back everything I said about how boring it was to be a mermaid. I'm in the mood for some undersea exploring.

look mom, i'm a rave!. buy it if you want to. Nice action RPG, well grounded in biblical source material. Recommended.. If you want to relive what you felt when you first laid your hands on Serious Sam: First Encounter, this is a game for you. You get to move around fast, jump around and shoot while the main character just keeps smacktalking with repeated lines over and over again, what is there not to love?

Alright, sure, let's be fair. THE game looks a bit clumsy at the times, especially the enemies, and you can get stuck to tight spaces. But hey, Serious Sam looked clumsy too, it's not the looks.

And the game is sadly a bi too short, just one more hour would've given me all I could want. But hey, this guy made a huge improvement from the first Putrefaction, and I liked that game too, maybe his next game will be even better. Here's hoping, Dragon out!. I think this game is great but I also think it could do with some more airports, maybe European ie Heathrow, and more planes. I know that the game is on mobile but I also think that the game should have better graphics for PC and cockpits should be accurate, not static. Just some of my thoughts for improvements, don't have a clue what other people think but I can see this as a good direction to go in.. Put this on my wishlist while it still had the 6000 Aurum. Bought it off the wishlist and did not see they had removed the aurum while keeping the price the same. No refunds. Feel ripped off. STAY AWAY!

This game is around 4-5 hours long. Depending on your reading speed, really. Also it doesn't have a serious plot but instead gives you a sweet, fluffy, heartwarming and charming story of two cute girls who gain friendship and eat lots of nice looking food.

Artwork is very nice, it gives you lots of CGs, although most of it focuses on the dishes itself as a warning. I definitely recommend this for people who want to read something lighthearted yet engaging.. Star Waker is a nice Shooter with a compelling story and some RPG elements. The upgrade system in particular is very well done, rewarding you for achieving bonus objectives and the skills changing the way you play as you unlock them. The story is nice but some times the good ideas are a bit held back by a somewhat poor delivery. Gameplay wise while there is some cases of annoyance due to "unlucky" unavoidable damage (but the game seems to be built with that in mind), the fantastic boss fights were definitely worth it as for some of them I was feeling like I was fighting a boss in a souls game.

All and all Star Waker is an enjoyable shooter with replayability through bonus levels and the two difficulty levels, while not the perfect game ( but is it even possible ) if you like shooting things in space it's definitely worth getting.. Decent Batmobile skin & ugly Robin skin.. Mibibli's Quest is a retro inspired 2D platformer with the gameplay of megaman and the style of space funeral, this game is a unique blend of crazy and fun with humor, style, and grace.

Here's some positives:

- +Amazing chiptune soundtrack that makes me a happy little boy
- +Good humor
- +Fun levels with always something new in store
- +A good amount of secrets to leave you playing for a bit

Some negatives:

- All the endings are pretty unsatisfying
  - No controller support
- . A fun platforming shooter with tons of levels. Great for when you're in a casual gaming mood.
